Form 990, Part III, Line 1 - Organization Mission

The mission: The overall mission of Phillips Graduate Institute's academic programs is to offer courses and programs that address the important needs of our ever-changing society. We are strongly committed to improving human relations at all levels through our students and all of whom we educate and train in multiple offerings. Our graduate work with individuals, families, schools, companies and associations help people lead more effective, enjoyable and productive lives. We value our ability to integrate academic knowledge with clinical experience and personal growth through classes and internship opportunities provided at our counseling center.

Most significant activities: Phillips Graduate Institute offers four Master of Arts degree (M.A.) programs, two Doctoral of Psychology degree (Psy.D.) programs, and a range of elective courses designed to provide students with training in specialized areas of study. In additon, Phillips Graduate Institute offers clinical training for doctoral and master's- level students and interns with the opportunity to provide affordable counseling, psycho-educational assessment as well as other services to the community.

Form 990, Part III, Line 4a - Program Service Accomplishments

Where applicable all educational requirements at the state-level are strictly adhered to in our academic programs (MFT, MFT/AT, SC, SP and CPDP), allowing our student to pursue the appropriate professional credentials necessary for success.

Continuing Education/Extension provides adjunctive education and training to students, interns and licensed professionals. This education and training enhances the professional development of therapists, counselors and consultants as well as fulfills state licensure requirements as applicable.

Form 990, Part III, Line 4c - Program Service Accomplishments

MFT stipend administration

The California Department of Mental Health initiated educational stipend programs for various disciplines including marriage and family therapists in an effort to address the need for mental health professionals in underserved communities. Funded through the Mental Health Services Act (MHSA), the stipend programs are part of a larger workforce plan to recruit, train, and retain professionals committed to a career in public mental health practice.

The California Educational MFT Stipend Program is an incentive programs to recruit MFT graduates and address workforce shortages in mental health care throughout the state. In order to implement a statewide recruitment of MFT students for these stipends, the professional organizations and the MFT school administrators formed a network of five regional consortia that reached 19 counties. Phillips Graduate Institute is administering the delivery of sixty stipends through its partnership with the regional consortia.

The selected and awarded MFT graduates provide mental health services in understaffed, impoverished ethnic or racial communities. Many awarded MFT graduates are able to provide mental health services in threshold languages other than English and address and can provide clinical service to populations requiring professionals with bilingual and multicultural capacities.

Through the application process, the awarded MFT graduates demonstrated a commitment to serving as professionals, the disadvantaged communities where they grew up or still live. Some disclosed their family's challenges of having a member with mental illness and with the struggles of inadequate care, limited resources, and the stigma they experienced. The stipend recipients expressed a desire to continue their dedication to community service as practitioners in the public mental health delivery system.

Form 990, Part VI, Line 2 - Business or Family Relationship of Officers, Directors, Etc.

Barry Levitt, Chairman of the Board, AND Evelyn Levitt, Board Member, are husband and wife and both serve on the Board of Trustee of Phillips Graduate Institute.

Lennie Rubinstein AND Pat Rubinstein are husband and wife, who are also members and serve on the Board of Trustee of Phillips Graduate Institute.

Form 990, Part VI, Line 5 - Description of Material Diversion of Assets

The Institution is currently conducting an investigation into whether its former Director of Technology misappropriated funds by charging it for items that were not actually provided. The outcome of the investigation is not known at this time. The institution has not yet been able to determine the final amount at issue or whether the investigation could materially affect the Company's financial status.

Form 990, Part VI, Line 11 - Form 990 Review Process

The process for reviewing Form 990 is as follows: The completed Form 990 is submitted to the Chair of the Finance Committee for review. It is then submitted to the entire Board for review. Board members are asked to submit written comments and questions within 5 days of receiving the return. Once all questions and comments have been addressed, Form 990 is then submitted to the Board for approval and filing.

Form 990, Part VI, Line 12c - Explanation of Monitoring and Enforcement of Conflicts

Each year, faculty and staff receive faculty handbooks in which the conflict of interest policy is described. All must acknowledge receipt and understanding of the policy and are asked to disclose any interests that could give rise to conflicts.

Form 990, Part VI, Line 15b - Compensation Review & Approval Process for Officers & Key Employees

Determination of the current CEO's (hire in May 2009) salary was based on several factors:

1. Available resources
2. Qualifications, skills and experiences
3. Salary of former CEO.

Determination of other officers and key employees were based on comparability data and available organizational resources.

Form 990, Part VI, Line 19 - Other Organization Documents Publicly Available
